Dear Parents/Carers,

In school

In English, the children have been enjoying lively debates about different aspects of Goodnight Mister Tom, sharing their opinions and exploring the characters and themes of the story. Having now finished reading the book, they watched the film and enjoyed comparing the two versions.

I n maths, the children have revised concepts that they have completed so far this term, looked at BODMAS and squared numbers.

Homework

There will be no homework set over half term. 😊
